Sir,

B 77-27-1

In submitting herewith correspondence ending with Chintamani Taluk amildar's report No.510 dated 26th May 27, I have the honour to state that there is chattram in front of the Taluk Office at Chintamani built by the late Mr. Dade Rao. The building, it is learnt, was rented out to several individuals and the realisations utilised for the puja of certain dieties installed nearby.

2. On late Mr. Dade Rao's transfer from Chintamani the rents were collected by somebody on behalf of the owner and the amount continued to be spent for the benefit of t temple as before.

3. Later on the buildings became dilapidated and the occupants left them empty and as a result the puja of the dieties was also stopped.

4. The building came under the management of the Local Boards some ten or twelve years back and it is now -- rented out for the Veterinary dispensary, Excise range office and the Excise depot.

5. An attempt was made recently by the public to revive
